“CRIME FALLS ACROSS PENNINE DIVISION”

Performance has continued to improve in Pennine and in the last year (April 07 - March 08):

- All crime down by 7.2%;
- Criminal damage down by 16.5%;
- Violent crime down by 3.4%;
- Vehicle crime down by 12.5%;
- Burglary has dropped by 18.0%

Officers say that the overall picture is very good and that the crime reductions are due to a significant amount of hard work, not just by local officers, but also by the public at large, local businesses and partner organisations.

In addition, each of the three Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnerships in the Division have achieved the three year volume crime reduction targets which were set by Government Office North West. These targets relate to the crimes which the public have identified as being of most concern to them.

The reductions were:

- Burnley CDRP 8.2%;
- Pendle CDRP 5.5%
- Rossendale CDRP by 7.3%

Commenting on the figures, Chief Superintendent Neil Smith said: “There will always be a degree of crime – I think most people accept that – but we are determined to do our best to prevent as many crimes as possible and to detect as many as we can too, and over the past 12 months we have certainly achieved that.

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT NEIL SMITH

“However, whilst our officers have done a tremendous job, others have assisted greatly too. The strong links that now exist between the Police and other agencies, both local and statutory, have ensured clear lines of responsibility and information sharing, which has also helped enormously in the fight against crime.”

“The challenge now for us all is to maintain these reductions, which is what we certainly hope to do over the next year. However I am convinced that the further development of neighbourhood policing and our commitment to tackling crime on our streets across Pennine Division will pay dividends for our communities.

“I hope these figures go some way to reassuring people who live in Pennine that we will continue to deliver a high quality policing service focused on their needs to help them feel safe”.

Don't do damage

Police in Burnley are cracking down on criminal damage by re-launching a text hotline. Police are encouraging young people to come forward with information by texting 07931 260477. As part of the Don't Do Damage campaign, posters are being displayed throughout Burnley displaying the textline number. Your message will be acknowledged.

By working closely with the Community Safety Partnership the police hope to reduce incidents of criminal damage throughout the Borough. Meetings are being held on a regular basis to tackle the issues and damage hotspot areas are being targeted jointly between the Police, Burnley Borough Council, Calico Housing, Sports Development and Young Peoples Services.

Analysis shows that criminal damage reduced by 18.6% from April 2007/2008 and is currently reduced by 11.9% in the year to date.

Chief Inspector Jon Puttock said: “I urge local residents to back our campaign by continuing to report incidents and by coming forward with any information they may have about offenders. They can do that by texting the ‘Don't do Damage’ textline on 07931 260477 or by speaking to their local Neighbourhood Police Officer, by calling us direct on 01282 425001 or by calling Crimestoppers free and anonymously on 0800 555 111.

“Don't do damage! And if you spot someone else doing it, report it!”

OFFENDERS TARGETED

OPERATION FACIO
PROTECTING PEOPLE IN PENNINE

Operation Facio, Latin for “Make it Happen”, saw officers and staff in Burnley, Pendle and Rossendale target offenders involved in organised crime, vehicle crime and prostitution. The eight week operation was a huge success, with 665 actions generated and completed.

It resulted in 226 arrests and press coverage illustrated to the local community that by working together a huge difference can be made to local communities.

Facio focused on community concerns and the operation led to:

- 327 PACT Priorities addressed
- 5 PACT related arrests
- 156 Intelligence submissions
- 268 Youth Referrals issued
- 571 Containers of alcohol seized
- 47 Vehicles clamped during joint operations with Police and DVLA
- 47 Penalty Notices for Disorder were issued for anti-social behaviour offences

- 1094 visits to anti-social behaviour hotspot locations
- 18 arrests related to anti-social behaviour
- 16 ‘Direction to leave’ notices issued
- 28 Reassurance visits to licensed premises
- 2 Cannabis warnings issued
- 1 Firearm seized

Chief Inspector Stuart Noble said: “This operation was about pulling together the different roles we perform across Pennine Division and understanding how different departments can and do work together to protect the people of Pennine.”

ON YOUR BIKE!

Burnley Community Safety Partnership is joining the crime fight!

They have allocated funding from Burnley Safer Neighbourhoods Fund to Burnley Police to purchase six new police bikes for the local Neighbourhood Policing Teams.

The teams now have access to the bikes, making it much easier for officers to get around their beats, provide a high visibility police presence, and fight crime in their local communities.

Neighbourhood Sergeant Martin Selway, said: “Bikes are a fantastic way to get around a beat area because unlike when you are in a patrol area, you can see and hear more, people can stop you and talk to you just as easily as they can a walking officer.

Drug users warned!

Drug users in Bacup are being warned that it's simply a matter of time before Police catch up with them.

The warning follows the execution of a number of warrants in the area, including one on Burnley Road East, which resulted in two people being arrested for production of Class C drugs.

Whitwell Community Beat Manager PC Mick Woods said: “The warrants are being carried out as a result of concerns raised by the local community. I hope that local residents are reassured by our firm action.

“Where we can find clear evidence of offences, we will put people before the courts. Anyone with any information about drug-related activity should come forward and speak to us.

“They can do this by contacting me direct, by coming along to their local Police and Communities Together meeting (PACT) or if they want, they can call Crimestoppers free and in confidence on 0800 555 111.”

He concluded: “Working together we can combat drug-use in our communities.”

“LANCASHIRE INVESTORS GET UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL AT OPEN DAY 2008”

Start with 7000 tickets, a mix of weather, add our very own ‘Bond, Investor Bond’ coin character and what do you get? A fun filled, activity packed Police Authority marquee at the Summer Nights Open Day launch, at Police Headquarters, Hutton.

Lots of activities were available for people to take part in at the Police Authority stand where members of the public were invited to give their views on policing priorities by spending ‘policing pounds’, rate their awareness of neighbourhood policing and talk about policing services. There was also the opportunity to ‘win back your council tax’ by grabbing golden tokens from the money grabber machine – where the Authority gave away £135 (the average amount paid from council tax towards policing) kindly sponsored by SMSR research.

Chief Executive Miranda Carruthers-Watt was pleased to welcome so many people to the Authority’s stand. She said: “There was no doubt that they were enjoying a wonderful day out. There was so much to see and do, I was delighted that so many people visited us to have their say on policing. They loved the money grabber machine and of course everyone likes to try and win some money, but people were also keen to put their views forward on policing and get involved. This shows that ‘Investors in Policing’ is really working.”

What has Investors in Policing achieved?

Since its launch, Investors in Policing has enabled the Authority to raise awareness of its role and to encourage people to become more involved.

It’s about shaping policing services: as council tax payers, you have the right to have a say in the way your money is spent on all local services and this includes policing.

Have your say!

Quick Glance

We asked - Do you know your local officer?
74% said yes, 26% said no.

Investors indicate top police investment choices by spending policing pounds

We gave members of the public £135 ‘policing pounds’ and asked them to spend it against the nine policing emphases that the Authority sets for the Constabulary each year. The top 5 choices were:

1. Public safety
2. Serious and organised crime
3. Anti-social behaviour
4. Counter terrorism
5. Violent crime

The bottom line

We asked - Are the police good value for money?
82% said yes, 13% said no.

Future investment areas identified

When asked to identify further policing priorities the top responses were :

1. Having more police
2. Tackling street crime (guns and knives)
3. Combating youth crime and protecting young people

“Winning Back your council tax”

The lucky winners of the £135 prize were the Patel family from Preston. Mr Patel said “I am delighted to win this prize and it was a real surprise. I enjoyed thinking about how I would spend my ‘policing pounds’ and the whole family, especially the children, thought the event was interesting, informative and worthwhile.”

“We win award, thanks to you!”

With your help Lancashire Police Authority’s Investors in Policing Campaign was rewarded with the ‘Community Engagement through Scrutiny’ Award, from the Centre for Public Scrutiny (CfPS).

At the awards ceremony in London, Judge Andy Sawford, Chief Executive of the Local Government Information Unit, said: “I liked Lancashire’s campaigning approach and also their ambition and scale. This was about using scrutiny to raise public awareness and it had clear and impressive outcomes.”

Malcolm Doherty, Chair of Lancashire Police Authority said: “Everyone in Lancashire who has given us their views and enjoyed our innovative methods of consulting them has helped us win this award. It is proof that local people do want to help shape local policing delivery and that we have provided them with the opportunity to do this. It also demonstrates that the Authority offers people very good value for money.”

“SUPPORT FOR VICTIMS & WITNESSES”

As a victim or a witness of crime it's important that you know what's happening, whether the offender has been caught and what the outcome is.

Over the last two years the Police Authority has worked closely with the Constabulary to focus on improving the service provided to victims and witnesses. Authority Member David Winthrop explained: "Keeping victims and witnesses informed is tremendously important. That's why Witness Care Units, formed in partnership with the Crown Prosecution Service, have been introduced. They provide a single point of contact for those cases going to Court, giving support and information throughout the process.

"People giving evidence are also offered help from Victim Support's Witness Service, a confidential service designed to help them through what can be a stressful time.

"We have monitored the progress made using a process called VICMAN, which checks that people have been kept properly informed."

Other successful initiatives include promoting the use of Victim Personal Statements, so that victims can explain to the Courts how a crime has affected their life.

Facing up to the impact of crime

Making offenders take responsibility for their actions is central to the Restorative Justice process.

Restorative Justice focuses on the victim receiving some form of compensation or amends from the offender, which victims say they find more satisfactory than other forms of punishment. This alternative method has been very well received. Those given a conditional caution, which is usually only offered to first time minor offenders, are expected to admit their offence and make good the harm they have done. The case doesn't go through the Criminal Justice System, saving time and money for the taxpayer, and the offender doesn't end up with a criminal record for a very minor offence.

Mr Winthrop added: "Victims are pleased to see offenders putting their wrongdoings right and the number of re-offenders goes down."

Delivering Results on your investment - Protecting People 2008

When local people supported the Police Authority with extra funding through the police part of their Council Tax, the Constabulary pledged to address serious and organised crime and terrorist activities.

Protecting People Week, a hugely successful operation held in May, saw a number of important achievements including:

- Almost 200 people arrested
- £130,000 worth of drugs seized
- 41 people charged with Class A drugs offences
- 8 cannabis farms discovered
- £31,880 cash seized
- 60 illegal cars taken off the streets

Chief Constable Steve Finnigan was keen to show the public of Lancashire what they can expect from a top-class police force and demonstrated, through a series of high profile operations in every geographic area, that when he says his priorities are to invest in serious and organised crime, counter terrorism and neighbourhood policing, that these promises transfer into action.

Congratulating the Force, Chair of the Police Authority, Cllr Malcolm Doherty who went out with the officers on the first day of the operation, said: "This is not just a one off crackdown. I know that the Constabulary will continue to target crime in each division, proving that the extra investment local people have made in their police force is paying dividends."

Lancashire Crimestoppers is top!

Calls to the Crimestoppers charity from people living in the county have increased and one in four calls has resulted in a detection. According to Home Office figures that put Lancashire as the joint top performing Crimestoppers board in the country alongside Leicestershire.

PC Kay Armstong, who co-ordinates the Crimestoppers hotline said: "Crimestoppers is a valuable tool for people who do not wish to be identified by the Police but have information on crime. Information from people in Lancashire helped with the success of the recent Operation Protecting People in the county.

"If people are afraid to ring the police with information about criminal activity then we would urge them to pass it anonymously to Crimestoppers. There isn't a call line identifier, calls are not traced, and calls by a landline don't appear on an itemised bill."

The head of the county's Crimestoppers charity, Mrs Gail Porter, said: "We act on all these calls and we are really pleased with our current success but we would urge people to continue to contact us with any information they have about crime in their area."

Crimestoppers can be contacted round-the-clock on 0800 555 111.

People can also supply information anonymously on the Crimestoppers website www.crimestoppers-uk.org where there are also details of suspects wanted by police in the district.

CSI: Lancashire

In the glossy world of television, 'CSI' programmes don't have an issue with the big budget costs of forensic materials. In the real world, the Police Authority's role is to ensure top notch 'CSI' results on a Lancashire budget.

Thanks to a groundbreaking project, 14 forces are working together to buy forensic services as a whole to make savings and perform better. The contracts were agreed with the providers in April this year.

This approach will see Lancashire Constabulary save over £1m. By joining together savings on things like DNA mouth swabs, which used to cost £45 per swab, now cost £22. With around 1,000 such swabs being submitted each month, the savings soon mount up!

In addition, turnaround times have improved and the reporting procedure has improved so that we can ensure value for money.

County Councillor Geoff Roper, Chair of the Police Authority's Resources Committee, said: "The project offers many advantages, such as economies of scale, continuity of service provision, reduced costs and greater effectiveness. This is all part of our pledge to the local taxpayers that we will invest their money wisely and to good effect."

The 'QUEST' for Service

Lancashire Constabulary's hugely successful Operation QUEST is now making its way across the force following its first successful trial within Northern Division last year.

QUEST is driving the Police to provide a service tailored to the needs of the public who need their help. Communication Room Operators will be able to offer better initial advice over the phone or members of the public can book an appointment, at a time convenient to them, to see a police officer at a police station 'surgery'. Where appropriate the appointment can be at the caller's home address or other preferred place.

These surgeries have been very well received and have proven their worth with 99% of customers being satisfied with how their enquiry has been managed. As well as improving the service for non-urgent matters, since the changes came into effect repeat calls to the Communications Rooms have fallen by 52%.

One member of the public who had requested to see an officer said: "The service was very good, a polite response to the initial call, the appointment was made within two to three hours of the call, and the officer attending was very polite and helpful."

“IMPORTANT NEWS!”

The future of our Police Authority Community Meetings (PACs)

As you may be aware, in recent months we have been reviewing the way we engage and consult with the diverse communities of Lancashire.

Finding out your views on policing and ensuring the local police are answerable to the public is really important to us. Historically, we have used PACs as well as undertaking three pilot Local Policing Boards across West Lancashire, South Ribble and Chorley. What the PACs and the Policing Boards have demonstrated is that whilst you want to get involved you have told us that these approaches may no longer provide the best way.

Through the review we have listened to your views and in the coming months we will be working with our partners who have responsibility for crime and disorder to move from the current PAC process to a new ‘face the public’ approach. This means that the September / October cycle of PACs will be our last.

We are working very hard to ensure that our new form of consultation will be more accessible, and that the local police will be more publicly accountable on the delivery of policing services.

Next Steps

In the next few months there will be a transition process where we move to our new style of meeting. We will keep you updated about the meeting times and venues through our website, newsletters and letters to you.

Whilst we are shaping the way we consult with you there are other ways you can influence how policing is delivered. You can contact us through our website. www.lancspa.gov.uk. Since its launch in February 2002, we have received over 3 million hits with over 14 thousand visitors in June 2008 alone.

We also obtain the views of a broad cross-section of the population through our ‘citizens panel’ – Opinion. Through our latest survey we received the views of over 2500 members of the community on a number of policing issues from confidence in the police to feelings of safety and the use of CCTV.

Finally, we will continue to engage with the community through our public events. Last year we received the views of approximately 900 people on policing priorities during our ‘Investors in Policing’ road shows. In June this year 700 people expressed their preferences on how they would like their council tax money for policing allocated and over 400 people provided feedback on Neighbourhood Policing.

Have your say in the neighbourhood

The Constabulary’s PACT (Police and Communities Together) meetings will still give you the opportunity to discuss policing at a very local level and, of course, you can visit the website or talk to your neighbourhood policing team. If you want more information visit www.lancashire.police.uk

Staying Involved

We are developing a role for people to stay involved in helping shape policing priorities. If you want to help us please let us have your contact details.
